

Questions for Reflective Study
Worship the King - Revelation Chapter 4
Week of January 9-15, 2022

Remember the big idea: The worship in heaven is centered around God, ascribes glory to him and responds to the truth about him.

As we grow in our relationship with God, we also grow in our worship of Him. How have you grown in your worship of God?

The worship in heaven is centered around God, 4:6-7.
How do you see that in Revelation 4:1-7?

Here on earth, lives centered around Jesus are probably the exception rather than the rule.
What are some other things that we can center our lives around?

The worship in heaven ascribes glory to God, 4:8.
Read Revelation 4:8. What do the four living creatures say about God?
He's holy, all-powerful, and eternal.
How do each of these attributes of God help us as we start the new year?

How might they challenge us, especially regarding our sin (pride, greed, lust, envy, gluttony, anger, laziness, etc.)?

The worship in heaven responds to the truth about him.
Read Revelation 4:9-11. How do the twenty-four elders respond to the four living creatures?

What's beautiful about their response?

What's God worth, especially as our Creator?

If we really understand how worthy he is, how might that change our Mondays? Our decades? Our eternity?

