What stood out to you from the weekend message?

Within the acrostic P.A.R.E.N.T.S, which letter spoke to you the most?

What other letters would you add to the acrostic? Note: the letter you use does not have to fit, or compliment, the word PARENT

If there are letters you are not doing, which one(s) are you inspired to start doing?

If you are a parent, which letter is the hardest for you to do?

Are there any letters that you disagree with?

How do you see the Lord parenting you?

Training involves discipline. Do you struggle with the "D" word? If so, are you willing to share why?

How have you seen the Lord discipline you in your walk?
